

Get the life you love!
CAMPAIGN

including NATIONAL CAREER DEVELOPMENT WEEK
"Career development – making career decisions easier"

Factsheet - Are you looking for work or a new career direction?

<https://jobsearch.gov.au/> - Jobsearch provides information about jobs and working conditions, careers and training, unemployment programmes and details of job and volunteering opportunities.

<http://www.deewr.gov.au/WorkplaceRelations/NewWorkplaceRelations/Pages/FactSheets.aspx> - provides information fact sheets on the policy behind the Fair Work system.

<http://www.deewr.gov.au/Employment/JSA/Pages/default.aspx> - a one-stop shop, giving you a single entry point to a range of user friendly employment services

<http://www.deewr.gov.au/Employment/Programs/ExpPlus/Pages/default.aspx> - If you are over 45 this website can help you find out about programs and services that can help you find a job, maintain your job, or move into a new role.

<http://www.seniors.gov.au/internet/seniors/publishing.nsf/Content/Your+Work> - lists a range of services and programs available to Australians over 50 in relation to finding employment, supporting business, undertaking training and locating volunteering opportunities.

<http://www.myfuture.edu.au> - myfuture provides lots of articles and information on job search, labour market trends, industries and work rights and responsibilities or for people to change their career direction. Visit the Facts on myfuture and click on the many links in Work and Employment. It includes information about different jobs, education and training providers, Australian Apprenticeship and much more.

<http://www.enya.org.au> - ENYA promotes active participation of young people in business.

<http://www.cdaa.org.au/emtysearch> - Career Development Association of Australia (CDAA) - this site will assist you to locate a career development practitioner in your area to help you with looking for a job, advancing your career, or seeking a career change.

<http://www.graduatecareers.com.au> - The Graduate Careers Australia website is a useful resource for students considering pathways after college and university. It contains a job-search engine, job-seeking information, hints and profiles of post tertiary education occupations.

<http://www.gradsonline.com.au> - Gradsonline is a searchable database of information on graduate outcomes on completion of tertiary education. Visitors can find starting salaries, occupations obtained, types of employers etc for a range of disciplines.

<http://www.graduateopportunities.com.au> - Graduate Opportunities provides information on, and links to, employers seeking tertiary graduates. The site is great for tertiary students in their final year of education.

<http://www.australianapprenticeships.gov.au/> - Australian Apprenticeships are a great way to get a head start and you earn as you learn!

<http://www.jobwise.gov.au/> - The Jobwise website supports mature age employment, and contains information for employers, mature age job seekers and mature age workers.

http://www.centrelink.gov.au/internet/internet.nsf/services/career_centres_outlets.htm - Career Information Centres assist people in making decisions about education, training and career pathways. This URL provides information about services and who to contact for further information.

<http://www.business.gov.au> - business.gov.au is a whole-of-government service providing essential information on planning, starting and running your business. It offers simple and convenient access to all the government information, transactions and services you need.

<http://www.innovation.gov.au> - This website provides assistance to help you understand innovation. It provides access to resources to help to progress your innovative ideas and identify sources of training and education that will assist in following innovative careers.

<http://careerone.com.au> - job hunters searchable website.

<http://www.careers.vic.gov.au/exploration/theworld> - In need of a career strategy kick start? See the Career Plan information provided on this website.

<http://www.careers.vic.gov.au/exploration/a-fair-workplace> - Career tips and ideas

<http://www.ncdw.com.au/index.php/industry-skills-councils---links.html> - provides links to all Industry Skills Council Career Information

<http://www.ncdw.com.au/index.php/government-career-development-resources.html> - provides links to all government career development resources

Author – Karen Penrose, Career Industry Council of Australia Project Director (Content checked November 2011)