

Diary dates for May

THERE are several important dates to put in your diary for May.

First is this Friday, May 8, when Dr Anne Wyatt and Dr Carlo Caponecchia, from the School of Risk and Safety Sciences at the University of NSW, will talk about workplace bullying at the Gaelic Club in Surry Hills, not far from Central station. For information go to <http://www.politicsinthepub.org.au/>

Next, National Career Development Week runs from May 18 to 25. There are hundreds of events for people of all ages and career stages. To find out more go to www.nationalcareerdevelopmentweek.com.au/

Career Communiqué Radio will be talking career change on May 18 with yours truly and career coaches Keith Keller and Annemarie Cross. This is a topic that attracts hundreds of emails to Ask Kate so tune in by typing in <http://careercommuniqueradio.ning.com/> Send topics you want tackled to Ask Kate.

Meet employers and trainers at the National Careers & Employment Expo on May 29 and May 30 at the Darling Harbour Convention & Exhibition Centre. In the current employment market information is very important so check it out.

Also, a reminder that we have an extensive Career Development section on the CareerOne website. Click on the News & Advice tab at the top of our home page and then the Career Development tab. The sections include Changing Careers and Career Profiles, which list hundreds of interviews with people about their particular job, Career Coaching, the Personality Profiler and Career Diary. The Personality Profiler is a free online test to help you find what you're suited to and Career Diary lists relevant events.
