Career assistance at hand

planned and unplanned can contribute towards the achievement of their goals and the realisation of their aspirations for their career and life.

By learning new skills to improve on-the-job performance, stepping outside the box, taking chances, not resting on their laurels and continuing to develop, even when successful, Griffith people can enrich their lives during NCDW.

EVERYONE is searching for the life they love.

During National Career Development Week (NCDW) locals are being encouraged to take responsibility for managing and developing their own career journey in order to make that happen.

Now in its fifth year, the week, which runs from May 16 to 22, hopes to help people recognise that just about everything they do in every area of life,
