Help on careers

YARRA Ranges Council today (Wednesday) hosts one of National Career Development Week's lead events, 1-3.30pm, at the council's Lilydale office. The Yarra Ranges-hosted workshop will include workshops helping carers plan their recreation, volunteering, training and employment options, as well as information on how prior learning can help attain new qualifications. The free workshop will also include massages and food. It will run from 1-3.30pm at the council's Lilydale office. More details: 9294 6335.
