

NEWS

Leading role

CAMPBELLTOWN will host one of 30 lead events taking place across Australia as part of National Career Development Week.

Activities during the week from May 17 to 23 will include a career development bus to promote learning and employment opportunities across the Campbelltown local government area.

Residents will be transported in the bus from each of the Housing NSW suburbs in the Campbelltown area to visit a number of training and educational providers throughout the region.

Details: ncdw.com.au