

Aboriginal Project Officer (LCP) – Jennifer

Q1: What is your current job/career?

Aboriginal Project Officer, with Local Community Partnerships, for the Geraldton Regional Community Education Centre.

Q2: Why did you choose your job/career? - did you have a plan? - what resources if any did you use?

Yes, I did have a plan and I choose to work helping Youth, to make a successful transition through school and onto further education or Traineeships and Apprenticeships. I enjoy developing and implementing group sessions and projects which give young people a sense of pride and confidence to face barriers throughout their life, to get the awareness and education about how important education really is.

Q3: How would you like your job/career to develop and what do you need to do to make the change?

I would like to be a facilitator, to develop my own programmes and work in primary schools. I need to do my six units of Workplace Assessment & Training first, to be able to do this.

Q4: When you were a child, what did you want to be when you grew up?

I wanted to be a Private Secretary and travel the world.

Q5: What challenges do you need to overcome to "get the life you love"?

I need to be more confident when I am speaking in front of a crowd of people. I also need to do more study to get to where I would like to be.
