

Training facilitator – Susan, (Age over 50)

Q1: What is your current job/career?

Training facilitator

Q2: Why did you choose your job/career? - did you have a plan? - what resources if any did you use?

I chose this career because I am passionate about people and their learning. I came to the career later in life after a life of motherhood & part time employment. As an experienced bank person I wanted to share my knowledge and experiences and felt I had a lot to offer in regards life experiences.

Q3: How would you like your job/career to develop and what do you need to do to make the change?

I am in the process of changing my career from a training facilitator to an L& D practitioner. I have joined professional organisations and have taken on additional projects both locally and nationally to develop myself. I have completed Cert IV in Training & Assessment and continually look for other experiences.

Q4: When you were a child, what did you want to be when you grew up?

I wanted to be a teacher.

Q5: What challenges do you need to overcome to "get the life you love"?

The challenges I face are finding the balance between work and life. But I am working on it.
